DEMOCRATIC TICKET SWEEPS THE CITY.

REPUBLICAN INDIANS OUT IN FULL FORCE.

Their Own Forecast of Election Frauds Made True by Armed Henchmen of Mayor Ziegenhein.

Police Make Many Arrests of Men Who Show Mayor's Permits to Carry Concealed Weapons—Two Republican Candidates in Trouble.

Despite their protestations of holy horror | on charges of carrying concealed weapon at imaginary stories of what Democratic BLANK PERMITS Indians might do in the election Tuesday. many Republicans distinguished themselves in offenses against the ballot box.

A Republican candidate for the House of Delegates fatally shot a citizen in a polling place in a dispute over the right of the citizen to vote.

The Republican candidate for City Marshal was arrested under the order of the Chief of Police, which required that all persons found with concealed weapons be taken into custody. The officer asserted that the man was openly flourishing a revolver on the street corner. His bond was signed by the Republican Collector of In-

The Republican United States Marshal made a stir in his precinct by loud talk about what he would do to any one who might try to interfere with him. He was not molested, though his behavior attracted much attention.

ZIEGENHEIN IGNORES THE STATE LAW.

Mayor Ziegenhein issued dozens of permits to his henchmen purporting to give them permission to carry weapons at the polling places and elsewhere. This, he well knew, has been declared illegal time and time again by State officials who are charged with enforcement of the law. The permits were ignored in the arrests made and warrants issued.

Through almost the entire city bands of Meriwether and Ziegenhein Indians went about together, using all the Indian tactics in favor of Ziegenhein's candidate, Parker. Formal complaint has been made in several instances where they voted the names of prominent Democrats whose intention to vote for Wella was widely known. Judges only present. The Republican Investigation, it is believed from reports judges were John A. Wasser, and B. H. made at Democratic headquarters Tuesday night, will reveal wholesale frauds resulting from the efforts of these Indians, under the guidance of ward heelers. Mr. Meriwether visited numerous polling places in the North and South sides. He was accompanied by an armed body guard riding in a closed carriage. He feared violence but at no place was he given other than the most civil treatment. R. B. GRAY'S

VOTE STOLEN.

R. B. Gray, the retired china merchant. who is well known in all circles in St. Louis was dumfounded Tuesday morning upon arriving at his polling place when inearly in the day by some one else. Mr. Gray was an avowed supporter of Rolla Wells for Mayor, and this fact was generally known throughout his ward. Mr. Gray resides at No. 625 North Leonard evenue, in Precinct 9 of the Twenty-second Ward. The precinct polling place was lo cated at No. 310 North Channing avenue. REPUBLICAN INDIANS

AHEAD OF GRISWOLD. Joseph G. Griswold, a prominent Demo crat and proprietor of the Laclede Hotel, found, on calling at his polling place at 9 o'clock, that his name had already been voted by some Republican "Indian." Mr. Griswold had a hard time in convincing the judges of election that he should not be deprived of his right to vote because they had been deceived by some "Indian," but the judges finally relented and he cas

Mayor Ziegenhein's permits to the Republican "Indians" to carry revolvers were of little avail. Arrests were made all over the city in every instance where a violation of the law was found, regardless of the Mayor's permit.

Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson has already held that there is no section of the statutes which gives the Mayor the right to issue a permit for carrying a concealed weapon any more than he has the right to issue a permit for a person to commit murder. The carrying of a concealed weapon, he holds, is a violation of a State law, over which the Mayor has no control. Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson has so held ever since he has been in office, but the municipal chief executive paid no attention to law.

CARRY WEAPONS UNDER

MAYOR'S PERMITS. In the attempt to intimidate voters "permits" to carry weapons were issued recklessly and indiscriminately to any Republican, black or white, who applied to his ward "heeler." No attention was paid to names. The permits were issued in blank. Dozens of men who were arrested exhibited these, but they were of little service.

Michael Lang of No. 2323 Warren street was arrested at the polling place at No. 3127 North Twenty-third street for carrying two revolvers and a "billy." He had a Ziegenhein permit, but Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Johnson issued a warrant. Valentine Liebig of No. 3120 North Twen tieth street and Edward Goessling of No. 2502 Hebert street were arrested at the same polling place for carrying revolvers.

Warrants were issued. Frank A Ritchie and John Amman were arrested at the polling place at No. 2305 Benton street with revolvers in their possession. Warrants were issued. Mack Tucker of No. 216 Valentine street and John Johnson of No. 116 Valentine street, negroes, were arrested near the polling place at No. 318 South Fourth street on charge of carrying revolvers. They had blank Ziegenbein permits.

Henry Tucker, a negro living at Se and Valentine streets, was arrested at Fourth and Spruce streets on a charge of carrying a revolver. He had a Ziegenhein

Henry Erb, a Deputy Marshal, was ar rested at the polling place No. 25 North Twelfth street for having a revolver concealed on his person. He was taken to the Four Courts, where he proved his identity, and he was released.

Nassaa Elberson of No. 1406 Aubert aveaue was arrested on a charge of attempted illegal voting at No. 4426 Easton avenue. Edward Miller, a negro, living at No. 216 South Eighth street, was arrested on a charge of illegal voting at the polling place at No. (10 Walnut street.

Thomas Noland, giving his address as No. 5088 Semple avenue, was arrested on a charge of attempting to vote illegally in Precinct 11 of Ward 28.

REPUBLICAN JUDGES QUIT POLLING PLACES.

Because of alleged fraudulent voting, the | for a statement, and replied: Republican Judges at Precinct No. 6 of the Seventeenth Ward left their places Tuesday morning, and the balloting continued throughout the day with the Democratic Bierman, and the Democratic Judges were Elmer J. Larissey and Dave Shelly. Frank Ritchie of No. 2352 Mullanphy street and John Amann of No. 2329 Benton street were arrested at this polling place on the charge, of carrying concealed weapons. The Re-publican judges said they would protest to he Election Commissioner.

SCHAWACKER'S BUSY DAY.

Chris Schawacker, the Republican boss was busy in the Fifth Ward all day. He drove from one polling place to another in buggy decorated with Parker banners, At the polling place at No. 312 South Fourth street three negroes, it was charged, made an attempt to repeat. They gave their names as Edwin Miller, Harry Tucker and John Coffee. One of them displayed a writ signed by Mayor Ziegenhein permitting him to carry concealed weapons. When searched the officers found a big revolver. REPUBLICAN CHALLENGER

ACCUSED OF REPEATING. In the Fourth Precinct of the Fifth Ward Edwin Miller, who claimed to be a Republi can challenger, was arrested by Officers Florida and Edom, who charged him with an attempt at repeating. He was arrested and later released on bond. He showed up at the polling place at Sixth and Walnut streets in the afternoon, but was ordered to keep the required distance from the booth, which he did.

MARSHAL ROHLE MAKES "BIG TALK."

United States Marshal Boyle, who votes at the Seventh Precinct of the Fifth Ward, appeared on the scene in his carriage. He attracted some attention by loudly proclaiming what he would do to any one who might dare to intimidate him. He voted without molestation, his visit being the only exciting incident of a rather quiet

DELAY CAUSED BY

The trouble arose over the attempt of James Lynch and John Hardy to vote. The men board with James Curran at Nos. 201 and 203 South Main street, the building in which the polling place is located. Curran went into the politing place with Lynch and Hardy and was prepared to swear if necessary that they were legal voters of the ward. The registration-books contained their names. However, Republican Judges Herman Leeders and George Hoffmelster refused to put their initials on the ballots and the polls were declared closed. James Lewis and James Haley, the Democratic judges, placed their initials on the ballots. Haley and Leeders went to the office of th Election Commissioners for a ruling on the uestion. The Election Commission vised them to go back and open the polls, saying that the Democratic judges were

LIBRARY PROPOSITION CARRIES OVERWHELMINGLY. $

The proposition to increase the library tax from one-fifth to two-fifths of a mill, which is necessary to comply with the conditions of the $1,000,000 gift for city libraries made by Mr. Carnegie, was carried at Tuseday's election by an overwhelming majority.

There was little opposition to the tax increase. Precincts Nos. 2 and 4 of the Twenty-eighth Ward voted 528 in favor of the proposition and 7 against. Precinct No. 4 of the Ninth Ward voted 311 for and 9 against; precinct No. 8 of the Thirteenth Ward, 203 for and 13 against; and precinct No. 6 of the Nineteenth Ward, 168 for and 44 against. In about this percentage the proposition carried throughout the city.

scarcely any vote counted for Meriwether, which will reduce his total to something below that of both candidates.

The City Hall gang gathered at the Merchants' League Club in large numbers to hear the returns. Their spirits were dampened early in the evening. As the returns began to come in along about 11 o'clock they imagined they saw hope. City Collector Wenneker admitted early in the evening that there was little chance for the Republicans. Hiram Lloyd, nominee for Marshal; Chairman Kalbfell, Secretary Hahn, Judge W. E. Fisse, Norman Florsheim, Charles Smith, Tom Niederinghaus, H. C. Grenner and other Republican leaders gathered in the directors' room. As the returns were brought in by the Precinct Committeemen they were tabulated and Judge Fisse worked diligently with his lead pencil to figure out a Republican plurality. Chairman Kalbfell sat by his side assisting in the work.

there were whispers instead. The situation was blue enough from the start, and little effort was made to enthuse over the result, as it was being slowly worked out by the men with the pencils.

Early in the evening Doctor Boyd, who took such an active interest in the candidacy of Mr. Parker, came into the room and remarked that if his suggestion for the wholesale use of shotguns had been adopted the result might have been different.

"Ten men at a polling place would have done the work, and prevented the Indians from voting," said he. The doctor told how he had prevented a dozen of them from casting fraudulent ballots in his voting precinct.

casting fraudulent ballots in his voting pre-cinct.

Neither Mayor Ziegenhein nor Mr. Parker, was present at any time during the evening.

A. H. Brueggeman, son-in-law of Mr. Parker, received the returns as fast as they came in and telephoned the result to Mr. Parker at his residence. He made the statement last night that Mr. Parker was as "cool as a cucumber."

From the talk among the members of the Merchants' League Club it is the evident intention of the Republicans to contest the election of Mr. Wells. The principal cry of "fraud" was backed only by incoherent statements made by certain members of the Republican City Committee, who grasped the opportunity to explain the defeat in that manner.

PRIESMEYER MAKES USE OF REVOLVER.

Shoots William Dwyer at Third Ward Polling Place, Inflicting Dangerous Wounds.

William Dwyer of No. 1508 North Eighth street was twice shot Tuesday morning at the polling place of the Eighth precinct of the Third Ward, at Eleventh street and Cass avenue, by F W. Priesmeyer of No. 1709 North Tenth street, who was the Republican candidate for the House of Delegates from the Third Ward. Dwyer is se riously injured, but at the City Hospital, where he was taken, it was thought that he would recover.

Priesmeyer was in the polling place and asserted that he saw a fraudulent ballot ccepted, and demanded justice from the judges. John Roach, Democratic precinct committeeman, was in the polling place and denied Priesmeyer's right to interfere both parties present, and it was their prov-ince to challenge voters. Priesmeyer re-sented Roach's remarks, and they engaged in argument. Priesmeyer says that Roach struck him.

In the course of the quarrel Priesmeyer backed from the polling place into a hall-way leading to the street. Dwyer, who is a Democrat, was standing in the entrance to the house in which was the polling place. Priesmeyer says that as he passed Dwyer seized him by the throat and pressed him backward, but that he escaped the grip and backed into the street. "Then," said Priesmeyer, "Dwyer made a move as if to draw a pistol, and I drew my revolver and shot in self-defense." Dwyer denies that he made an aggressi

Dwyer denies that he made an aggressive move toward Priesmeyer. He said that he was standing in the doorway when shot and that he had but told Priesmeyer that he had no right to interfere at the polling place. Roach corroborates Dwyer's statement, and said that it was his belief that Priesmeyer was too excited when he drew his revolver to know what he was doing. Dwyer sustained two wounds, one in the arm and a second in the hip. Priesmeyer was arrested on a charge of assault to kill, but was released on bond.

ism and dealt a death blow to gang rule by electing Rolla Wells and the entire Democratic ticket. In their own strongholds the Republicans suffered crushing defeat at the hands of Meriwether, the man whom they relied upon to elect their ticket. He swept the German-American wards in North and South St. Louis clean, carrying not less than eight -the First, Second, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth, Twelfth and Nineteenth-and probably the Eighteenth,

George W. Parker, the Republican candidate for Mayor, had a hard tussle holding second place, and was crowded by Meriwether to the finish.

Wells and his ticket made substantial gains in all parts of the city, which, re-enforced by the Republican defection to Meriwether, swelled the Democratic plurality to magnificent proportions.

Election day disturbances were infrequent and not of a serious nature. There were a few shootings, but in only one instance was At an early hour Wednesday morning Chairman Theodore D, Kalbfell of the Republican City Committee, who was at the Merchants' League Club, held out that Mr. Parker was elected nothwithstanding that 253 preceincts out of 353 showed a vote of 35,000 for Wells, 22,000 for Parker and 21,000 for Meriwether. Mr. Kalbfell was grasping at the last straw.

"I base the statement on the returns we have received here." said Mr. Kalbfall. "Mr. Parker makes gains over his opponent in the wards in the north and west ends of the city. Merriwether's vote cuts in on both no provision for their issuance, and the no provision for their issuance, and the prisoners were held for the Chief.

Probably the most severe rebuke to the Ziegenhein administration was the election of the Meriwether candidate for the House of Delegates, Oliver J. Funsch, in the Mayor's own ward, the Ninth. Meriwether carried Mayor Ziegenhein's precinct, the Fourth, in the Ninth Ward, with a vote of 208, Parker receiving only 107.

The Seventh Ward, which in the past has been dominated by "Tub" Becker, one of Ziegenhein's appointees, gave Meriwether 1.668 votes, Parker 1.217 and Wells 889.

This ward has always returned a Republican majority. The Eighth Ward went the same way, also the Ninth, Tenth and Twelfth. In North St. Louis the repudiation of Ziegenhein and City Hall misrule was equally as stinging. Republican workingmen in the First Second. Eighteenth and Nineteenth wards, who had tired of the gang, turned to a compromise candidate and voted for Meriwether. In the Eighteenth Ward the Republican cardidate for the House of Delegates, John Helms, one of the men who voted for the Central Traction bill, was overwhelmingly defeated by the Meriwether candidate, John H. Klute.

Another Central Traction bill supporter George D. Schaefer, in the Twentieth Ward, was beaten by nearly 1,500 votes by the Democratic candidate, Charles F. Kelly. Charles A. Gutke, Republican candidate for the House of Delegates in the Tenth Ward, also a Central Traction bill supporter, was defeated by Otto F. Karbe, the Meriwether candidate.

The Republican defection to Meriwether in the northern wards was on a larger scale than had been anticipated by the Meriwether managers themselves.

Paulus Gast, whose term in the City Council expired on Monday, has always been an influential factor in Republican clitics in the North End, but he told his friends weeks ago that he would not sup-port the Parker ticket, and it is evident that he did not. The St. Louis Car Works, controlled by George J. Kobusch, who was the chief backer of Judge Zachritz in the primary campaign, are located in Baden, and employ 1,000 men. Parker received few, if any of their votes. In the northwestern and southwestern wards Wells was strong beyond the expecwether also received a good-sized vote, principally at the expense of Parker.

The downtown and middle western wards returned great majorities for Wells. The Twenty-eighth, did not change to any marked extent over last fall.

Chauncey I. Filley was not put out at hi defeat. He declared that he had no idea of "But I've lived to see Henry Ziegenhein and the City Hall gang eliminated, and that's satisfaction enough for me."

Ziegenhein, Lloyd and the others of their lik are annihilated, politically, and the City Hall gang will be cleaned out." Charles F. Wenneker, candidate on the Republican ticket for re-election to the office of Collector, admitted the election of the entire Democratic ticket. Kalbfell of the Republican City Committee refused to say anything except that Parker was making steady gains all over the city an assertion not borne out by the re-
